

The Patrick J. Kesselring Scholarship Fund

BACKGROUND –

The fund was set up shortly after the untimely death of Patrick in May of 1991. Patrick was a beloved member of the Arlington Woods Free Methodist Church family. He was a bright, fun-loving Christian man who had a deep faith in Jesus Christ. This faith sustained him through his sickness and death. His demonstration of faith impacted his many friends who, after his death, wished to remember him by setting up a scholarship fund.

The fund was designed to help young committed Christian men and women in their pursuit of post-secondary education by providing deserving candidates with a financial scholarship.

ELIGIBILITY –

In order to apply:

1. The applicant must be entering or already enrolled in a post-secondary educational program.
2. The applicant must be regularly attending Arlington Woods Free Methodist Church for at least two years.

APPLICATION –

The application form must be completed in its entirety, and turned in to the Pastor by May 29th for the next academic year.

Along with the application we need the required report card/transcript and a letter of reference from a Pastor of Arlington Woods Free Methodist Church or a Christian mentor from Arlington Woods Free Methodist Church.

A candidate may be awarded the scholarship if they have demonstrated:

1. An excellent academic record
2. A serious commitment to Jesus Christ
3. A pursuit of post-secondary education

The value of the scholarship(s) available will be determined annually.
